

What to Do if a Death Has Occurred

Since most deaths occur in health care institutions such as hospitals and nursing homes, the attending staff may provide you with some preliminary information. If the death occurs at home, please notify the physician or attending registered nurse (if the death was unexpected, or if there are any peculiar circumstances, phone the police immediately). If the deceased was under hospice care at home, the hospice staff should have left some basic information for you to follow. No matter what circumstance, our brief checklist will help you along the way.

First Step: Initial Contact

- Contact doctor, nurse, coroner or police if necessary
- Contact our funeral home by phone at 780-425-5002 - we are available 24 hours/day.
 - When you call, we will ask you these questions:
 - What is the full name of your loved one who died?
 - Where did your loved one die? Are they still at that location?
 - Who is the next of kin, and what is their contact information?
 - What is your name and contact information (if you are not the next of kin)?
 - Does your loved one have a pre-arranged funeral with our firm?

Second Step: Completing Funeral and/or Cremation Arrangements

- Set an appointment time with us for you to come to the Cremation Center to complete the details of the arrangements. We can meet you at your residence or other location if you desire.
- For the arrangement, we will ask you to have information and items that we need to complete the arrangements, such as:
 - Vital Statistical information for your loved one including:
 - Date and place of birth (city and province)
 - Parents' names, including mother's maiden name
 - Parents Place of Birth
 - Marital status and spouse's full name
 - Occupation for most of their life
 - Social insurance number
 - Alberta Health Care Number
 - Drivers Licence Number
 - Veteran information including discharge papers / claim number
 - Pre-arrangement documentation (if applicable)
 - Cemetery lot documentation (if applicable)
 - A recent photograph
 - Clothing for your loved one
- Decide on the location of the services. These can be performed at your church or another facility that is appropriate for hosting services. (Capital City Cremation does not have facilities for conventional or large services)
- Contact the clergy/celebrant/officiant who will be presiding at the service.
- Set the time for the service.
- Compose obituary (with our assistance if, you wish; there is a $50 fee) The information needed includes: a photo, age, place of birth, list of surviving family members, list of pre-deceased family members (if desired), occupation, education, memberships, military service, hobbies and activities, the details of the service, donations to a particular charity (if desired). Again, we will help you with the obituary and post it on our website, plus submit it to any appropriate newspapers (if desired).

- Determine the number of death certificate copies that you will need and we will order them for you.

Third Step: After the Arrangements and Before the Service

- Prepare a list of family, friends and business colleagues to be notified.
- Notify all organizations such as church, groups and associations.
- Start a notebook or list to keep a record of visitors, flowers and other gifts that are delivered to the house and funeral home. If anything is delivered to the funeral home, we will notify you right away.
- People will say to you, "Please let us know if there is anything that we can do," so be prepared (and don't feel bad) to accept this generosity. Make a list of items and tasks such as meals (let them know if there are any special food allergies), household duties (including cleaning or mowing the lawn) and transportation (for out of town family or friends or even picking up kids from school). Again, don't feel bad accepting this help; your friends want to help but usually don't know what to offer.
- Arrange for childcare, if necessary, although we strongly suggest that all family members be present at the service.

Fourth Step: After the Service

- Set an appointment with our Aftercare Specialist (there is a $250.00 charge for this service) to help you get organized with settling the estate, filling out forms, and contacting the appropriate agencies, including:
 - Notifying the bank of the death
 - Notifying insurance companies
 - Contacting the lawyer if necessary
 - Canceling credit cards and driver's license
 - Submitting phone number to Do Not Call lists
- Consider sending a copy of the memorial folder to those who were not able to attend the service.

If you have more detailed questions on what steps to take next, or if you are ready for us to assist you, call 780-425-5002 any time, day or night. We are here to help you.
